

As Long As the Earth Endures

Genesis 9:8-17; Psalm 25:1-10; 1 Peter 3:18-22
(First Sunday in Lent, Year B)

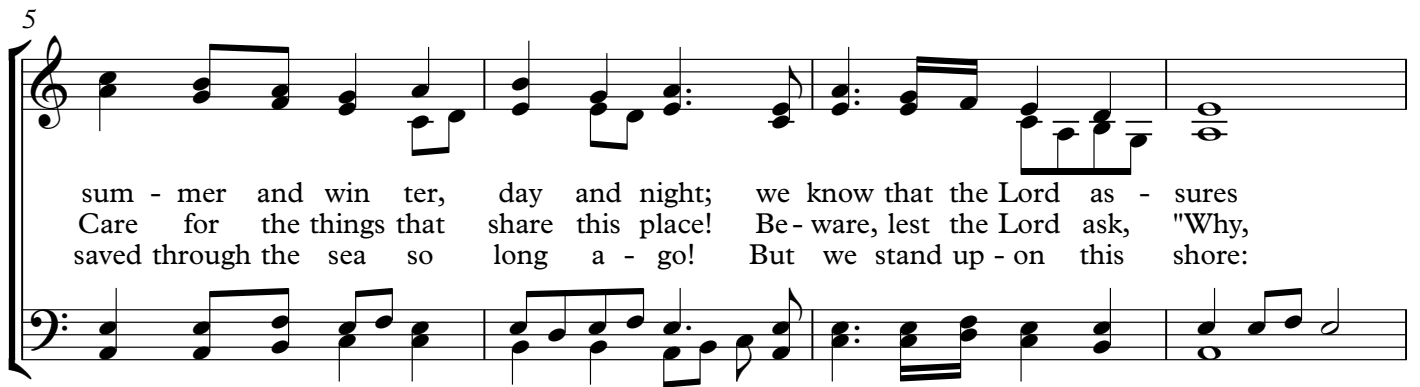

Paul G. Donelson

$\text{♩} = 100$

As long as the earth en - dures, seed-time and har - vest, cold and heat,
Be fruit - ful and mul - ti - ply! Love and re - spect your place of birth!
"The Lord is a God of war!" So said the peo - ple Mo - ses led,

5

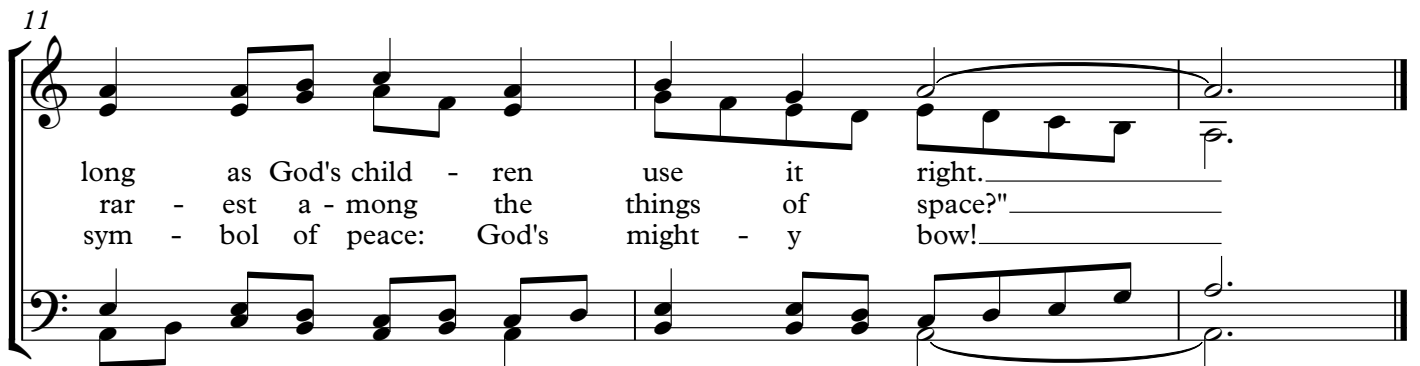

sum - mer and win - ter, day and night; we know that the Lord as - sures Care for the things that share this place! Be - ware, lest the Lord ask, "Why, saved through the sea so long a - go! But we stand up - on this shore:

9

bles - sings of sea - sons, food to eat, so why did you waste the fruits of earth, the
Up in the clouds we see, in - stead, a long as God's child - ren use it right.

11

rar - est a - mong the things of space?"
sym - bol of peace: God's might - y bow!