

Come, See the Child

Isaiah 9:1-7; Titus 2:11-15; Luke 2:1-20
(Christmas Eve, Year AB&C)

Paul G. Donelson

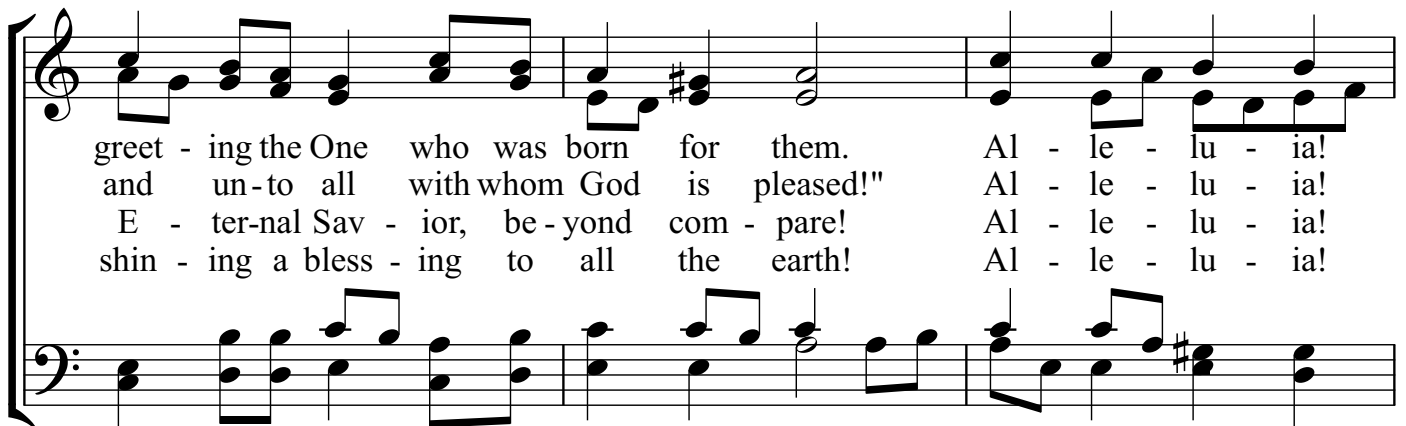

$\text{♩} = 110$

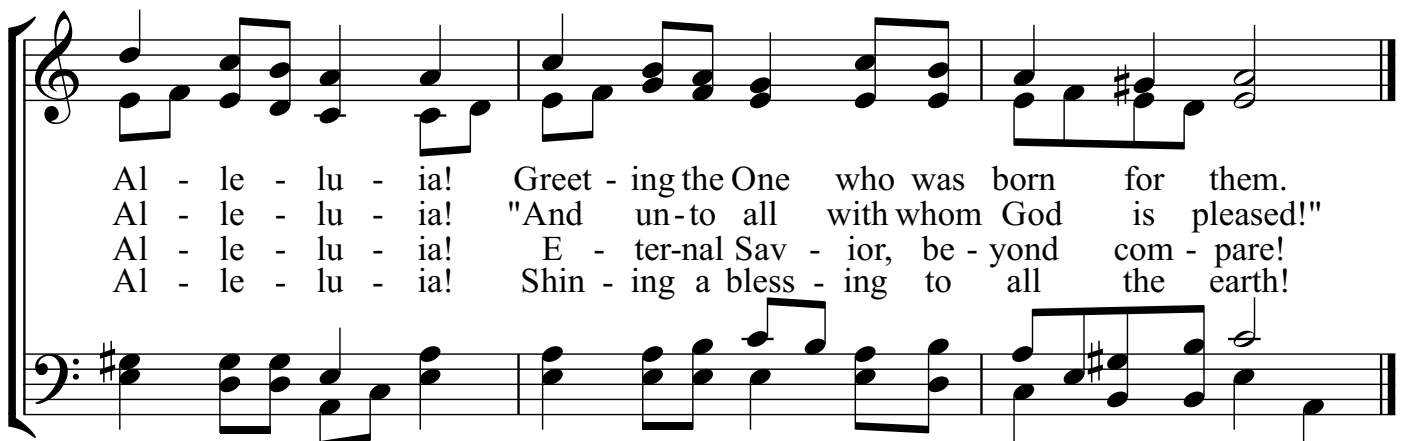

1. Come, see the child in the man - ger laid, here in a sta - ble of
2. Hear with the shepherds of Beth - le - hem voic - es of an - gels, their
3. Who brings this joy that shall ne - ver cease, born in a place of such
4. We who have walked in the dark - ness' blight know the great joy of our

Beth - le - hem. Shepherds and an - gels in joy par - ade, news re - leased: "Let there be peace for Jer - u - sa - lem hum - ble fare? Won - der - ful Coun - sel - or, Lord of Peace, Sav - ior's birth. For, in that Child we have seen a light greet - ing the One who was born for them. Al - le - lu - ia!

and un - to all with whom God is pleased!" Al - le - lu - ia!
E - ter - nal Sav - ior, be - yond com - pare! Al - le - lu - ia!
shin - ing a bless - ing to all the earth! Al - le - lu - ia!

Al - le - lu - ia! Greet - ing the One who was born for them.
Al - le - lu - ia! "And un - to all with whom God is pleased!"
Al - le - lu - ia! E - ter - nal Sav - ior, be - yond com - pare!
Al - le - lu - ia! Shin - ing a bless - ing to all the earth!