

Our Lord Sent Forth a Prophet

Deuteronomy 18:15-20; Psalm 111
1 Corinthians 8:1-13; Mark 1:21-28
(Epiphany 2B)

WORDS: by Paul G. Donelson
MUSIC: Welsh Hymn Melody

♩ = 120

1. Our Lord sent forth a prophet, like in the days of
2. Then, while they were in wor - ship, Christ healed a sin - sick
3. So, let us wor - ship Je - sus, the Word of God made

4

old, to lead us in God's right - eous ways, a - live in love and soul, and ev - ery one was quite a - mazed to see their friend made flesh, and spread that name through-out the world to save, re - new re -

8

bold. When Je - sus start - ed teach - ing the mes - sage of God's whole. The peo - ple at Ca - per - naum kept ask - ing, "What is fresh. So man - y need God's heal - ing from all their bro - ken - word, the peo - ple lis - tened care - ful - ly, a - mazed at what they heard.

12

this? He has the pow - er to sweep clean and heal what is a - miss."
ness. And we are called to heal the sick and God's great love pro - fess.