

The Peace of God Is Given to Us All

Lev. 19:1-2; Matt. 5:38-48

WORDS and MUSIC: Paul G. Donelson

(Easter 7A)

$\text{♩} = 160$

The peace of God is giv - en to us all, un -
When we are hurt, should we re - turn the blow? The
To hate our foes: 'Tis log - i - cal, it seems. But All those who work should have their wag - es paid. The to the rich, the poor, the great, the small. And God of Love, in mer - cy tells us, "No!" So Christ has told us, "Love un - to ex - tremes!" Our hand - i - capped we ne - ver should de - grade for,

Christ dis - played to all the way to live:
when we're struck we turn the oth - er cheek
love must go to ev - ery one a - live!
as our - selves, our neigh - bors we must love!

To care a - bout the poor, our gifts to give.
and walk an ex - tra mile, of Christ to speak!
For in Christ's peace God wills us all to thrive.
And for this task comes strength from God, a - bove!